

Environmental Policy

Agro One is committed to improving its environmental performance through a synchronized, focused team effort from all stakeholders. The Company also has an ISO 14001:2015 compliant Environmental Management System, USDA Organic Certification, Control Union Certification, FDA Certification, FSSC 22000 Certification, Star-k Kosher Certification and JAS certification.

Agro One has provided employees with training on appropriate environmental practices and set environmental objectives and targets to pursue such as its efforts towards environmental sustainability that not only benefit the environment but also positively impact the community and society at large.

Director

Date